Pass School Trustees Form New Association; Sam Bannan Appointed Chairman; To Deal With Subjects Common To All Boards

Teachers' Salary Question Debated At Length; Lack of Association Has Resulted In Bellevue's Salary Schedule At Sharp Variance With Other Two Boards.

Delegations from Bellevue and Blairmore school boards met the Coleman trustees on Friday evening for the purpose of discussing school problems common to all, the varying teachers' salary schedules in particular and also organize a Crows Nest Pass School Trustees' Association if all present favored such an organization.

Blairmore's delegates were in favor of a uniform salary schedule throughout the Pass schools. Last year when Coleman granted a new salary schedule, following arbitration, Blairmore granted a schedule to its staff which followed largely along the lines of Coleman's. Examination of the Bellevue schedule, which was submitted, revealed that this Board was at wide variance with the Coleman-Blairmore schedule.

Bellevue also revealed that it had been approached by the teachers for a straight $118 raise across the Board. It stated that the principal was paid a salary of $3940. Coleman pays its principal $3,500 while in Blairmore the principal receives $3,000.

Coleman stated that during its negotiations with the Coleman Teachers' Salary schedule committee it had been advised by the committee that the A.T.A. secretary Anselmy would be brought to Coleman to take part in future negotiations.

It was agreed that neither Blairmore or Bellevue Boards would act on the salary question with their respective staffs until a decision was reached at Coleman. Chairman George Evans stated that the Coleman Board had been asked for a straight $600 across the board which had been refused.

During discussion on the relative difference between Bellevue's salary schedule and the other two Boards the former admitted that it may have been too hasty in coming to terms with its staff. However with the organization of a C.N.P. School Trustees Association all Pass boards would be in a position to know what action each planned on taking in regard to salaries.

All present were unanimous that an Association would be beneficial and as a result the following officers were elected: Chairman, Sam Bannan, Blairmore; vice-chairman, James Christie, Bellevue-Hillcrest; secretary, Miss Gladys Lees. Each Board will contribute $10 to create a fund for incidental expenses. It was also agreed that Frank be invited to join the Association.

The next Association meeting will be held in Blairmore following Coleman's negotiations with Mr. Anselmy.

Present were: Bellevue: Chairman, J. Christie, Trustees J. McDade, W. Bury, Geo. Coupland and secretary Ernest Fisher. Blairmore: Chairman Bostett, Trustees Mrs. J. Korcosky and Sam Bannan. Coleman: Chairman G. Evans, Trustees, D. Holly, O. Bomben, J. Wilkie and M. Cornett; secretary G. Lees.

Stores Closed On Saturday, May 1; Pay Day Friday

Stores Will Remain Open Until 6 p.m. Friday; Bank Will Close At 3 p.m. Friday; Open 9 to 11 a.m. Saturday.

Pass housewives are advised that all Pass stores will be closed on Saturday, May 1, owing to it being May Day, a recognized holiday by the merchants and miners.

As a result pay day in Coleman will be on Friday. The manager of the local bank advises that the usual banking hours will be observed on Friday, that is 10 a.m. to 3 p.m. The bank, however, will be open from 9 to 11 a.m. on Saturday, May 1, so that men who have not picked up their pay envelopes on Friday may do so on Saturday morning.

Stores will remain open until 6 p.m. Friday.

Civic Centre Com. To Purchase Theatre Lot

First Concrete Step Has Been Taken Towards Realizing Goal of a Civic Centre In The Community.

At a general meeting of the Civic Centre Committee on Tuesday at which Rev. Father Leo Sullivan presided, the committee took its first real step towards attaining its goal, that of a Civic Centre in Coleman, when it was agreed to purchase the Palace Theatre vacant lot on main street.

Wm. J. White, secretary of the Miners' Union, reported that the miners had voted not to sell their main street lots until the Civic Centre had shown that it had a workable plan and that there was a reasonable certainty that the plan would be followed through to a successful conclusion. Mr. White also revealed the executive would have sold the lots twenty times over but that the miners were interested in the cultural welfare of the town and were willing to mark time in order that cultural activities could be promoted.

It was suggested that all wage earners be served with a pamphlet outlining the immediate objectives of the civic centre committee, the amount of money which would be required and whether they would be willing to hike their present monthly contribution of 25c, which is solely for sports' maintenance, to $1.25 per month, the dollar to be used in civic centre construction and the 25c to be used as it has been in the past, on sports. A pledge will be attached to the pamphlet.

A joint meeting of the Committee and the Sports' Association is to be held on Monday evening to discuss how best each can co-operate with the other.

Two plans have been drafted by Architects Meech, Mitchell & Meech, Lethbridge, of a Community auditorium and they will be studied at the next meeting.

"Tricks" Raised $81.77 For Civic Centre Fund

Coal Company Directors, Town Council and Officials of Miners' Union; Mine, C.P.R. and Board of Trade Met at Social Evening.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. McIntyre proved themselves the perfect hosts at their Carbondale home on Monday evening when they sponsored a social gathering of the directors of International and McGillivray coal companies, here to attend the annual meeting, and members of the miners' union, town council, Board of Trade, C.P.R. and mine officials, the latter including superintendents, Master Mechanics, Pitt Bosses and Chief engineers. Mr. McIntyre stated he would have liked to invite additional members of his official staff and other citizens but that lack of accommodation had been responsible in limiting the number to whom invitations could be sent.

The warm and friendly reception given the local guests by Mr. and Mrs. McIntyre and the directors soon had everyone in jovial mood and it wasn't long before Messrs. G. M. Warren, of Trail, decided to raise some money for the Civic Centre. The latter is quite adept at an egg trick and aided and abetted by Mr. Warren as a baker of no mean ability some folding money started to sprout wings and fly into the hands of Chairman H. A. Howard who became self-appointed treasurer. After a build-up of twenty minutes Mr. Anderson, with real showmanship, successfully completed the trick and the Civic Centre was enriched by a fairly good sum.

Not to be out-done Mr. G. A. Wallinger, of Trail, took the spotlight with a second trick, that of removing a match from a nickel standing on its side and enclosed in a tumbler. Mr. Howard, again aided by Mr. Warren, soon had the greenbacks, mostly foreign, changing hands and a considerable sum was secured to be turned over to the Fund. There were no winners. Mr. Wallinger had difficulty accomplishing his trick and Geo. Jenkins came to his aid to bring it to a successful conclusion. Bank Manager Frank Duncan was given the money which totalled $81.77 to be placed in the Civic Centre Fund.

A light lunch was served by Mrs. McIntyre aided by daughter, Blanche, Mrs. Wm. Bennett and Miss Winnifred Dunlop.

Of interest to Board of Trade members will be the news that Mr. Anderson, general manager of the West Kootenay Power & Light Co. and a Mr. R. R. McNaughton, also of Trail, will address a Board meeting in the near future.

Sports' Association Held Annual Meeting On Sunday; Financial Statement Reveals $1511 In Fund

Very Few Persons Present; Baseball Club Asks That Sports Grounds Be Improved And Request Will Receive Consideration

It would appear that the Sports' Association executive is conducting the Associations' business to the satisfaction of all judging from the very few persons who attended the annual meeting on Sunday evening.

Chairman George Jenkins presided at the meeting and all sat around the council table which was quite adequate to handle all in attendance. The financial statement revealed an increase in salaries during the past year, amounting to $48 per month during the four or five winter months. In order that the arena might be repaired to permit winter activity this season $1,229 was spent in having an engineer take it in hand, strengthen it where required and thus take it out of the category of being a "condemned building".

The Association still retains a balance of $1,511.37.

Miners of the Crows Nest Pass will hold a mass meeting May Day, Saturday, in the Columbus hall at 2 p.m. when labor leaders of the U.M.W.A. and the C.C.L. will be heard.

The May Day celebration is held annually and each year is alternated between the Pass towns.

Due to Coleman not having a theatre the usual free matinee will have to be dispensed with this year. Instead the miners' union will have Principal Hoyle distribute a sum of money which will result in each child being given 25c on Friday, the youngsters to spend the money in whatever manner they wish.

Respectfully submitted,
Coleman, Alta. Auditor
April 10, 1948.

The arena report revealed that 89 days were absorbed in skating and hockey activity. 21 days saw the arena closed due to mild weather.

The Tennis club fence, particularly on the west side was in need of repair and attention will be given it.

Two members of the baseball club were present to ask that the ball field be improved. Soil has been blown away from the outfield and more soil is required. The back-stop was also in need of improvement. It was agreed that the Association would furnish material for the back-stop if the club members would do the work. This was agreed. It was also agreed that should the field be improved that members of both the hardball and soft ball clubs would roll up their sleeves and help in the work.

TO LOCATE HERE FOR SUMMER MONTHS

Mr. Merle Nilsson, of Trail and formerly of Coleman, is in town this week seeking a location for a radio repair shop which he plans on operating here during the summer months.

While in town he is the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Nick Nicholas. He stated that Mrs. Nilsson, sister of Mrs. Nicholas, was in Vancouver to meet her sister, Mrs. Jack Northam when she arrived by plane from Australia on April 17.

Mrs. Northam was one of the three Vancouver citizens who travelled to Australia to seek a cure for cancer from John Braund. The latter's so-called cure received severe censure from the Australian government following receipt of a report from a medical body which had investigated Braund's claims to a cancer cure.

Mrs. Northam is enjoying improved health at the moment.

High Living Costs

DURING THE PAST YEAR there has been considerable concern over the rising cost of living in Canada. Such conditions as now exist were to be expected after price controls and other anti-inflation measures, enforced during the war, were removed. It was inevitable that these controls should be removed, but it is regrettable that the resulting adjustment is proving a difficult one for many Canadians. Recently the Family Welfare Division of the Canadian Welfare Council made a survey throughout the Dominion of the effects of rising living costs on the average Canadian family, and the results of this survey show that there is indeed cause for anxiety over some aspects of this problem. Although incomes have increased and there is little unemployment, it was evident from the report that many families are experiencing great difficulty in meeting present price levels.

Feel A Lack Of Security

As a result of this situation, the Welfare Council reported, in many cases savings, which had been put aside for emergencies or for use in later years, had been drawn upon to augment the family income at this time. The use of these reserves, and inability to continue any systematic savings because of the high cost of living, has given rise to feelings of insecurity which are harmful to the welfare of the family. In this connection, the report said in part "the never-ending struggle to stretch an inadequate income to meet basic needs will in time be frustrating to even the most stable men and women, increasing family tensions, affecting health and in some cases endangering the security of children and aged people."

Low Standards Of Nutrition

It was also noted that in some cases debt is becoming an increasing problem, while in others the high cost of living is causing standards of nutrition to be lowered, with results that are already noticeable in children, and in sufferers from diseases such as diabetes, where adequate diets are of great importance. The re-establishment of some price controls, unemployment insurance, family allowances and other similar measures were pointed out as possible "shock absorbers" in relieving the present situation, but it is realized that underlying causes will have to be dealt with before there can be any permanent improvement. The problem is a complex one, resulting from the economic upheaval which always accompanied war. Canada has been more fortunate than many other countries in this respect, but the situation here is nevertheless serious, and it is to be hoped that an early adjustment may be found to the present high price levels in this country.

Duke Of Windsor As Drummer Boy

WHITE SULPHUR SPRINGS, W. Va.—The Duke of Windsor, after 29 years, played a repeat performance here with the Greenbrier hotel orchestra.

He sat in at the drums using a pair of sticks presented him by leader Meyer Davis, as the musicians played How Are Things in Glocca Morra?

Davis called the duke to the orchestra stand during an intermission in a diamond ball held as a feature of a gala week-end party attended by more than 300 leaders of business, government, society, the motion picture world and sports.

The group, described by veteran society reporters as the largest gathering of the so-called "top drawer" in their experience, were the guests of the Chesapeake and Ohio railway owners of the Greenbrier.

Switzerland Worried Over Canadian Trade

OTTAWA, Little Switzerland is worried about her trade with Canada. Government sources said the Swiss have notified the Canadian Government they are worried about this country's dollar-saving trade restrictions. These were put into effect last November and operate against the Swiss as well as other countries. Switzerland has a favorable balance of trade with the Dominion.

A spokesman here said Canada has to pay in "hard" currency—U.S. dollars or Swiss francs—for what she buys from Switzerland. Because of her dwindling hard currency reserves, Canada has had to step down her imports from Switzerland.

"And," said the spokesman, "the Swiss don't like it."

CHAMPION GROUP OF FIVE STEERS at Edmonton Spring Show were exhibited by Milner & Steer, North Edmonton, Alta. Edmonton's 37th annual Spring livestock show drew a record entry of more than 1,600 animals and topped last year's pork proceeds of a quarter million by $25,000. More than 2,000 head of fat stock and over 100 boys' and girls' calves were exhibited and sold. "For quality and numbers the stock has been the best in all Canada," said Lee Williams, head of Weller & Williams and a past president of Edmonton Exhibition Association which sponsored it.

Anticipates Heavy Immigration By Air

OTTAWA—A heavy movement of immigrants by air to Canada this year is certain, Trade Minister Howe told the Canadian Press. The movement would be at least as great as last year.

Mr. Howe said in a statement that during the last 12 months TCA has carried 11,637 westbound passengers across the Atlantic.

The cabinet has before it suggestions for machinery to facilitate the air movement. The question it must decide is whether the Trans-Canada Air Lines will remain simply the carrier of the air-borne settlers and leave to the immigration offices overseas the sole responsibility for smoothing the way for the immigrants.

"We are anxious that at least 50 per cent of the immigrants come from the United Kingdom," Mr. Howe said. There was no shortage of applications from would-be immigrants.

Recent returns show that the TCA now has 16 first class Canadian-built planes available for the Transatlantic run and one souve has estimated such a fleet could bring over more than 20,000 immigrants in addition to looking after the regular traffic.

Cooks $2,000 Bank Roll To Ashes

SHEVEPORT, La.—A $2,000 bank roll that Travis McCreary hid in a cook stove at his home appeared, perfectly safe from hold-up men.

Who would go to a cook stove looking for money?

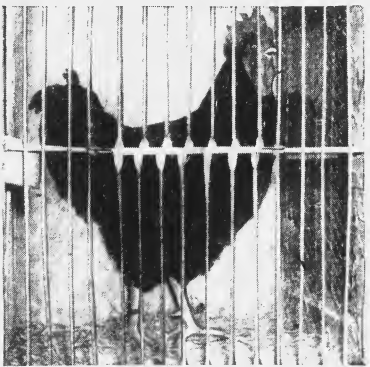

But, McCreary, a grocer at nearby Rodessa, forgot to tell his wife about his cache when he put the money in the oven while the banks were closed.

Came suppertime preparation—soon after lighting the stove his wife smelled smoke.

Investigation revealed a pile of parched folding money, by that time little more than ashes.

"Ah, well, he's takin' his time now."

He: "Fine. He likes poetry, then?"

She: "Not at all. But the last friend of mine he tried to throw out was an amateur boxer."

Introduce New Aids To Jobless

OTTAWA—The commons took a peek into Canada's industrial future and decided it was a good idea to make provision for any depression that may lie ahead.

The chamber gave preliminary approval to two pieces of legislation aimed at easing the shock of unemployment.

One will broaden the scope of vocational training by extending it to persons who have exhausted unemployment insurance benefits and to others who have not been working at jobs covered by insurance regulations.

The other increases the maximum benefit for married persons under the unemployment insurance act from $14.40 to $18.30 a week, payment for single persons to be boosted from $12.30 to $14.40 a week.

MAX, THE ALLIGATOR, ONE OF THE FAMILY PETS, HAS HIS POINTS

BERLIN.—In the Reichelt family, they sleep three to a bed — Poppa Reichelt, Momma Reichelt and Max, who happens to be an alligator.

Mr. and Mrs. Emil Reichelt have other pets—dogs, cats, snakes, rabbits and monkeys—but it is only the six-foot, 150-pound alligator that slept with them every night last winter.

The 25-year-old Max was singled out for this privilege because otherwise, say his owners, he would have died of the cold.

"He is a most reliable alligator," says Reichelt. "He's completely clean. He never sneezes, coughs or makes other noises."

It is only in the morning that Max gets restless. He turns back and forth until he gets a piece of cake. Reichelt thinks he inherited his taste for sweets from his American parents, who brought him into the world in New Orleans in 1922.

Otherwise, Max's tastes are simple. He lives on three to four pounds of spoiled meat a day.

"Where could you find such an economical pet like my Max?" asks Reichelt. "He eats meat which stinks like the pestilence and never gets stomach cramps."

At night, Reichelt voices in his easy chair with Max on his lap. Poppa Reichelt smokes a pipe. Max chews a pipe. Max needs a new pipe every month.

GARDEN NOTES

Space Is Important

After the first planting is up the next major job is thinning and spacing. This is vital work and applies to either flowers or vegetables. Crowded flowers will grow thin and spindly, will not bloom freely and the biggest plants will topple over in the first storm. They should have half as much room between as they will grow tall. This means about four or five inches for things like nasturtiums, less for alyssum, much more for tall marigolds, cosmos or spider plants.

With the smaller vegetables, a couple of inches between plants is sufficient. This applies to leaf lettuce, early carrots, beets, etc. Beans and peas should have from four to six inches between plants, and as all the seed usually germinates it should be planted about this far apart. Rows should be from fifteen inches to two feet apart. Corn is usually planted from three to six seeds to a hill, about eighteen inches apart each way or rows two to three feet apart. Tomato plants require at least eighteen inches each way, melons, squash and cucumbers three plants to a hill, and hills about two to three feet apart.

Second And Third Plantings Too much stress cannot be laid on continuous planting of the standard vegetables like lettuce, radish, beans, carrots, beets, corn, etc. All of these will taste much better when they just begin to reach proper maturity.

Most of them, especially the beans, lettuce, corn and such things, begin to get tough if left too long. The only way to assure a proper succession is to keep planting them. It is far better, old gardeners say, to have several rows of them coming on two weeks apart than all at one time. In most parts of Canada it is quite possible to keep planting many vegetables right up to mid-July.

Protection Best protection against pests is a healthy, fast-growing, clean garden. Cultivation and fertilizer will help in this. Second defense is to be ready with the proper sprays and dusts the instant a bug or disease attack starts.

Health LEAGUE OF CANADA presents TOPICS OF VITAL INTEREST

FLUORINE ENEMY OF DENTAL DECAY

The "new ray of hope" in the dental profession's fight to lessen tooth decay is fluorine. It was stated by the Canadian Dental Association in a message to the Health League of Canada issued in connection with the recent "national Health Week" observance.

The statement says that if water supplies can be mechanically infiltrated with the required amount of fluorine without harmful results, "we can look forward to a gratifying lessening in the future in the prevalence of dental decay."

Fluorine is an element that is a close relative to chlorine, which latter is used in purification of water supplies. It was discovered that in localities where there is a natural supply of fluorine in the water supply (one part per million is an ideal percentage) the prevalence of dental decay was lessened by 60 per cent.

Fluorine is present in this percentage in relatively only a few places throughout the world, but experiments are now being carried out in Canada and the United States to determine if adding the required quantity by mechanical means will obtain the same result as when it is naturally present.

Study Required

It will take from five to seven years to determine this, according to the dental association statement, which adds that careful scientific studies are being made to determine the action of fluorine on all parts of the body.

"This is highly important," the statement says, "because fluorine in larger doses is poisonous."

The statement lays down some rules for care of the teeth which, it found in various parts of India.

WINS AWARD—Douglas Le Pan, 34, first secretary in the office of Canada's high commissioner in London, Eng., is one of six Canadians awarded fellowships by the John Simon Guggenheim memorial foundation. He will be granted one year's leave of absence from the staff to write, according to his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur D. Le Pan, of Toronto. His collection of poems, "The Wounded Prince," published early this year in England, was, in the opinion of his parents, the principal reason for the award.

says, have been proven effective. Here they are—

Lessen intake of carbohydrates such as sweets, candies, and foods from refined flours and sugars.

Eat the foods the body requires, making sure that they contain the necessary mineral elements for the building of sound teeth.

Frequent washing of the teeth with a brush is essential.

Starting at three years of age, children should be taken to a competent dentist at frequent intervals.

CURIOSITY REALLY KILLED THIS CAT

FITCHBURG, Mass.—Toby was a cat—and a curious one.

She liked to sit on the set tubs and watch while Mrs. Sofocle Eringi did the washing.

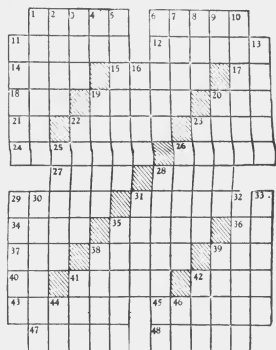

Eringi was called when Toby's neck got caught in the wringer but they were too late.

Toby was dead.

1949 Mercury On Display At Coleman Motors

The 1949 Mercury went on display this morning at Coleman Motors and many of the curious and interested have given it a thorough inspection.

The design is radical from that of the 1948 model and encompasses styles which compare with the Buick and Kaiser - Fraser models. It is only 5' 3" high.

The radiator is quite wide and many parts of the engine are more accessible. Two air conditioners are at either side of the engine and purifies the air before it passes into the interior of the car.

The interior is luxurious and the upholstery harmonizes with the dashboard and other interior accessories. It is quite roomy and a dome light goes on when any door is opened.

The style of the car provides for an exceptionally spacious baggage compartment which will accommodate much more than was possible in past models.

Motorists are invited to call at Coleman Motors to inspect the new model which will remain on the floor until May 10.

Curlers Wind Up Season With A Banquet

Presentation of Prizes Made; Jim Kerr Rink Won McGillivray Cup; Many Curlers In Attendance.

The 1947-48 curling season was officially concluded on Saturday evening when Coleman curlers gathered almost 100% strong at the annual banquet held in the curling arena.

Wined by the hospitable servers—uppers Ed. Wood and Jim Kerr, and dined by Al. Fry who was fronting for the Grand Union hotel which once again provided a feast that left nothing to be desired the curlers were in gay mood by the time the prizes for the three club competitions were presented. Vice-president George Ford called upon J. J. McIntyre to present the McGillivray Cup won by the Jim Kerr rink. In making the presentation Mr. McIntyre stated that examination of the names engraved on the many small shields attached to the base of the cup showed some had become venerable, many of the old curlers having gone to their honorable rest. Mr. Kerr was presented with the cup and the rink's personnel, Skip Kerr, Ed. Wood, Joe Panek and Bob. Pattinson were each presented with a handsome and substantial Ronson lighter suitable for placing on a desk or suitable piece of furniture in a living room.

Mr. Joe Emmerson made the presentation of the Merchants' Cup to the Holstead rink. Joe had lost out in the final of this competition and managed to get in some good natured kidding before presenting Skip Tom Holstead with the trophy and the rink's personnel, Skip Holstead, Stuart Murdoch, Herb. Hewitt and Ed. Somshor with prizes of Westinghouse electric irons.

Mr. Les. McDonald had the honor of presenting the Dutil Trophy to Harry Boulton's rink. This is the first year the trophy had been presented and it is a most handsome trophy, gift of Mr. Wilf. Dutil. Mr. McDonald stated that Harry always seemed to get in on the prizes and it was with the greatest of pleasure that he gave Mr. Boulton the new trophy for a year's custody. The winning rink, Harry, E. Hutton and Bill Liddell each received sports jackets.

Mr. Wm. Kerr, of Bellevue, was the only visitor present. He told of witnessing the MacDonald Brier competitions this year and the calibre of play. He wished Coleman club many years of continued success.

The banquet continued for many hours with additional speeches and musical program.

Firecrackers Cause Student's Suspension

Board Upholds Decision of Vice-Principal; Cameron School Roof to be Repaired Immediately.

Their time almost fully absorbed by the Bellevue-Blair more delegations on Friday evening the local Board only touched upon the most important piece of business on Friday evening as it pertained to school administration.

Insurance policies covering portions of Cameron and Central schools were authorized renewed.

The Cameron school roof is in such poor shape that it is imperative that repairs be made to it immediately before the spring rains start in earnest. It is proposed to insulate the roof but the Works & Property committee was authorized to partially shingle it for the present to combat major leakages.

The most contentious item of business was concerning a youth who was suspended by vice-principal Horace Allen last Friday. The Board was told that children had been bringing firecrackers to school. On Thursday Mr. Allen had warned all students to leave the firecrackers at home. On Friday this grade seven, 15-year-old youth brought a firecracker and threw it through a window in Mrs. Beek's room which was open. The firecracker exploded in the room. Mr. Allen caught the youth, who admitted his guilt, and sent him home. His action was subsequently supported by Principal Hoyle. Chairman Evans and Trustee Wilkie.

A statement was submitted by Principal Hoyle to the Board which contained a report on the youth's school progress and reports from several teachers, who teach him subjects.

The report was such that the Board voted in favor of suspending the youth for an indefinite period in order that the parents may be given a chance to state what they are prepared to do in regard to their son's school progress and future school behaviour.

All-New Long, Low Lines

At first glance this all-new 1949 Mercury reminds you of those low, rocketing racers which streaked across the salt beds of Utah's big car—and exceptionally broad. And it's really low—only 5 feet 3 inches from road to roof line. In its sweeping harmony of curves there's the very spirit of dynamic motion. Yes, this great new Mercury moves like a whisper with its new, powerful, 110 horsepower V-type, 8-cylinder engine.

window you get a wide-open view in all directions. Interior lights come on when any door is opened. The car is ventilated with clean fresh air supplied under slight pressure to prevent closed-car drowsiness and to defog windows. When a Mercury heater is installed the system provides fresh, warm air.

KENNEDY — McISAAC

An all-white wedding was solemnized at the Holy Ghost church at 9 a.m., April 24, when Eileen Jean, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Kennedy, was united in Holy Matrimony to Gerald Ronald, eldest son of Mr. Bion McIsaac and the late Mrs. McIsaac, of Springhill, Nova Scotia. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Father L. Sullivan.

The bride, entering the church on the arm of her father, wore a gown of white marquisette, sweetheart neckline, short puffed sleeves and wore long laced mittens. Her full length veil was held by a cornet head-dress and she carried a bouquet of red roses and white carnations. Her only ornament was a gold amethyst pendant, encrusted with pearls, a gift of the groom.

The bride was attended by her maid-of-honor, Miss Victoria Silvers, and her bridesmaids were Misses Joan Naylor, Vera McLeod and Marjorie Tiffin.

They wore gowns of white taffeta and net, chapel veils as head-dresses and their only ornaments were pearls.

The maid-of-honor's bouquet was of pink carnations, while the bridesmaids carried Colonial bouquets of spring flowers.

Mr. James Hayes attended the groom while the attendants to the bridesmaids were Mr. Danny Ross, Mr. Thomas Turnbull and Mr. Rod McNeil.

Miss Margaret McLellan sang "Ave Maria" while the register was being signed. Mrs. Maurer played the Wedding March.

A reception for sixty guests was held at the home of the bride's parents which was gayly decorated with pink and white streamers, pink and white tapers and centred with a three-tiered wedding cake.

For the reception the bride's mother wore a two-piece crepe black suit, while Mrs. Pat, McLeod, standing proxy for the groom's mother, chose a white two-piece flannel suit. Their corsages were of pink carnations.

The toast to the bride and groom was proposed by Rev. Fr. L. Sullivan, while the toast to the bride was given by Ernest Hill, a friend of the family for many years. Mr. McIntyre responded to the toast to the groom, as the latter had suddenly taken ill and was not present. The New 1949 Mercury Car Now on Display Described by the makers as "not a new model, but an entirely new automobile," the 1949 Mercury will be introduced to the public later this month as the first of Ford of Canada's long-heralded postwar passenger lines. The sport sedan shown here is one of two models to be available the other being a six-passenger coupe.

Company officials said the 1949 Mercury has been designed in styling, performance and luxurious comfort to take its place in a new competitive field. Long, low lines are a feature, the car being only 5 feet 3 inches from road to roof, and rear seats a full five feet in width. Powered by a newly-designed V-type 8-cylinder engine, the Mercury has special spring suspension for easy riding, with coil springs in front and longitudinal springs at the rear, complemented by airplane-type shock absorbers and big, low-pressure tires.

A unique ventilating system provides a steady, easily-controlled flow of clean, fresh air in summer. When combined with a heater unit, it maintains a warm, even temperature in front and rear seating compartments and helps to eliminate fogging of the car's extensive glass areas. The design of the dash is such that all instruments are directly in front of the driver for maximum visibility.

Four Beaver Killed By Train West Of Town

Big Game Coming Ever Closer To Town; Giant Moose Seen Giving Town Once Over Last Week.

Three beaver, a large one weighing approximately fifty pounds, and two year-olds, kids were killed by a train a week ago Sunday when run down while crossing the track west of town.

The track runs between a slough and the river and it is thought the three animals were endeavoring to change from one body of water to the other.

The carcasses were discovered by Joey Coccolone who in turn notified Forest Ranger Irvin Drew and Assistant Forest Ranger Wm. Liddell. The animals were brought to the Ranger station and consigned to the district game warden at Pincher Creek. He was unable to come to Coleman so the animals were skinned and the furs sent to the Game Dept.

Big game are coming closer to town. Last week two International employees employed at the hotel located on the mountain side overlooking town stood in amazement when from the hoistroom door they saw a giant moose stand in majestic splendor in the beautiful spring evening and calmly survey the peaceful scene of the community spread out before it.

Last week in mid-day two deer were seen frolicking on the hillside on the west side of the new municipal hospital. They ran up and down a slide grade at the top of the hill and appeared to be having the time of their young lives.

Interviewing game guardian, Wm. Liddell, The Journal was told that he and Forest Ranger Drew have two deer that are almost tame. He stated he was aware of the presence of moose in the nearby hills. One of the deer seen frolicking near the hospital, he revealed, is now no more. The carcass of a deer was reported to him near the hospital and upon going to the scene he found that it had apparently been pulled down by some other animal, possibly a cougar. All meat had been eaten away leaving only the head and skeleton.

There is no open season on either Moose or deer at the present time and he asked that all Pass citizens take it upon themselves to protect these beautiful animals and aid in increasing big game life in the Pass. Any hunter known to be guilty of illegal shooting should be reported immediately following which steps will be taken to bring him to time.

Monday morning Assistant Forest Ranger Wm. Liddell brought the body of a young beaver kit to The Journal office. The carcass had been washed up on the river bank alongside the Frank Raymond residence in Willow Drive. Examination of the animal revealed a severe wound in its body. It is believed that the kit was with the other three beavers that were killed by the train and that its wound, though fatal, had permitted it to crawl into the river where it had subsequently died.

Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Janostak Move To Grand Forks, B. C.

Came to Coleman In 1908; Had Operated Grocery Business; Purchases Home in Grand Forks.

Coleman lost another of its old-timers last week to the more moderate climate of British Columbia, where they will spend the remaining years of their life in leisurely vein, cultivating a small garden and tending a few fruit trees. This time it was Mr. and Mrs. Stephen Janostak, who left on Friday for their new home at Grand Forks, B.C.

It was in 1908 that Mr. Janostak first set foot within the town of Coleman, having arrived from Fort William at the head of the Lakes where he had worked for eight years at a CPR grain elevator. In 1909 he was married at Fernie and brought his bride home to Coleman to reside.

He went into business for himself by purchasing a store east of the present Coleman Cleaners. A few years later he moved from that location to that now occupied by Park's Grocery. He sold out to Mr. Park only about eighteen months ago and went into retirement. Following his selling of his business he and Mrs. Janostak went for a holiday to B.C. where they visited several towns in which they might wish to settle. They returned to Coleman and occupied their home on Second street during the past year.

Some time ago Mr. Janostak visited Grand Forks where he purchased a home located on three lots and having a few fruit trees. He endeavored to sell his Second street property but was unable to sell it outright and so has rented it to Mr. and Mrs. Nels Anderson.

All their family was born in Coleman, two daughters, Veronica and Virginia and three sons, Joe, Steve and Vince.

While in Coleman during the past forty years Mr. Janostak only associated himself with the First Catholic Slovak Union of which he is a member.

Their many Coleman friends join in wishing them many pleasurable years of happiness in their new home.

MODERATION

... THE WISDOM OF MATURITY

True, we are a young country. In less than a century we have risen from colonial youth to nationhood of a stature enjoyed by no other people of our numbers.

Canada has earned this. Through the years we have kept our sense of values . . . been moderate in our pleasures . . . moderate in our thinking.

Today, we continue to bear ourselves with the self-respect of a moderate people. We are moderate in our spending, in our thinking . . . moderate in our pleasures . . . moderate in all things.

We are young, yes. But we have come of age, for moderation is the wisdom of maturity.

True to the traditions of her profession, Mrs. Lulu Adams, billed as the world's only woman clown, appeared in her usual role despite the tragic and sudden death of her husband, Albertino, famous veteran clown, on the eve of the show's opening. Seemingly concerned only with the crowd's laughter, she presented a brave-hearted example of the traditional "The show must go on". Her husband, with whom she had toured the world as a clown team, died of a heart attack while making a radio broadcast. The picture shows Mrs. Adams in her dressing room after the show putting away her "props".

OUR COMPLETE SHORT STORY—

Rufe Finds Katy

By T. W. TOBIN

RUFÉ LARKINS was in trouble, but he didn't know why. He knew he was in love but he didn't know that love was causing him trouble. That's what love does to people.

It was Saturday night in the little town of Belleville, and as usual Rufe had driven the twelve miles from the farm to get shaved, buy some chewing tobacco and some nails. What he really came to town for was to see Katy McCullum.

There were other there, too, farmers just like himself, in town to buy a few things and to talk over. Rufe seldom talked crops. He'd just listen, chew his tobacco and lean up against the front of the post office which was just across the street from old Bob McCullum's hardware store where Katy worked.

Rufe was tall and thin. His face was normally sad. His eyes reminded one of a baby's bloodshot.

Every Saturday night, rain or no, Rufe headed up on chewing tobacco, got a barber shop shave and bought some nails. He didn't need the nails. There were plenty at home, but when he bought nails he got to talk to Katy McCullum.

"What are you going to do with all these nails, Rufe?" Katy would ask.

"Oh, I got a little fixin' up to do on the corn crib," he'd answer. "Seems like you fixed that corn crib last month," Katy would say as she weighed out a pound or so.

"No, that was the hog pen or the windmill, I forget which."

One Saturday night, the little group in front of the post office was smaller than usual. When Rufe got there his heart seemed to stop—the hardware store was closed.

"Well, Rufe, how's things out your way?" asked Farmer Jones.

"All right, I guess. What's the matter with the hardware store?"

"Old McCullum closed up early so Katy could go to the carnival."

"Where's the carnival?" asked Rufe.

"Why, you came by it comin' to town."

"Come to think of it I did see a bunch of lights and tents at the edge of town but didn't pay any attention," said Rufe.

Rufe suddenly had business elsewhere. He turned and walked up the street to his car. He just had to see Katy, carnival or no carnival. Her smile and sweet voice made the world go around.

Minutes later he was in his car and driving back the way he had come. As he drove he chewed tobacco and thought of Katy. In his mind's eye he could see her as she always was—dark blue eyes the color of new overalls, hair a kind of sorrel color and skin the same shade as steamed milk. Oh, she was a girl in a thousand. And polite, too.

Soon Rufe saw the lights of the carnival up ahead and turned off the road and parked his car. Before him was the carnival—music, lights, side-shows, sawdust, hot dogs and people. Funny he hadn't noticed it as he drove by before. Thinking about Katy did that.

Rufe didn't even know what he'd said to Katy when and he saw her. His usual head of conversation consisted in buying nails. What he'd said to her in carnival he didn't know, but he was going to try.

"One side, fellow, and let the lady by," said a harsh voice behind him. Rufe turned to see a city fellow, probably from the carnival with a gun in his arm. The girl was Katy.

"Why, hello, Katy," Rufe managed to mutter.

"Hello, Rufe, want to buy some nails tonight?" said Katy, giving him her best smile.

"Nails! Ha, Ha, that's a laugh," said the stranger.

"One side, fellow, and let the lady by," said a harsh voice behind him. Rufe turned to see a city fellow, probably from the carnival with a gun in his arm. The girl was Katy.

"Nails! Ha, Ha, that's a laugh," said the stranger.

"It don't seem funny to me," said Rufe.

"Come on, Katy, let's go over and see the show," said the stranger, and they disappeared in the crowd.

Rufe, not knowing what to do, went over to a stand which had a man with his head stuck through a hole in a canvas. People were throwing baseballs trying to hit him on the head. Nobody succeeded. Rufe bought some balls and tried his skill. He had thrown a few balls, all of which missed their mark, when he heard loud voices. The stand was deserted except for himself and he looked about to see who it was. Over to the side were Katy and the stranger and they seemed to be arguing about something. Finally, Rufe heard Katy say she was going home and the stranger said she wasn't.

Rufe laid down the balls and walked over to them. "What's the matter, Katy?" he asked.

"What's it to you, String Bean?" said the stranger.

"You'll find out," said Rufe, "if you don't let Katy alone."

"Oh, I will, huh?" said the stranger as he pulled out a long knife.

"Look out, Rufe, he's got a knife," said Katy.

Rufe looked at the knife and stepped forward. The stranger made a slash and Rufe stepped back minus an overall button. Rufe chewed his tobacco, sized the stranger up and down and stepped in again. This time the stranger wasn't going to miss with the knife. He started to make a slash and that was as far as he got. For suddenly he was rubbing his eyes and suddenly a fist hit him in the jaw and flattened him. Suddenly, too, the knife was taken from him.

"Rufe, you're wonderful," cried Katy as she threw her arms around the now beaming farmer, "but you shouldn't squirt tobacco juice in people's eyes. It isn't polite."

Rufe made no answer for a moment but just stood there. Suddenly he began to get paler every minute.

"What's the matter, Rufe? Did he hurt you?" asked Katy.

"No, Katy," answered Rufe, "but when you threw your arms around me like that—I swallowed my tobacco."

Bidding Railway

In Northern Manitoba

OTTAWA.—Manitoba's prospective nickel-copper mines at Lynn Lake far up the western border of the province came briefly before the house of commons railways and shipping committee. R. S. Moore, C.C.F. member for Churchill, asked about the possibilities of building a railway into that region in view of the active and promising mineral exploration now going on up there.

But, R. C. Vaughan, CNR president, thought it a bit premature to be talking about a railway to Lynn Lake. "It's a big job," he said. "It would cost millions." The project was "some distance in the future yet."

"Then no representations have been made yet?" Mr. Moore enquired.

"No," replied Mr. Vaughan.

Such a railway, if done, would presumably be an extension of the present line from the Hudson Bay railway to Sherridon, most northerly railway point in the western Manitoba mineral area. It would have to cross the Churchill river on its way to Lynn Lake.

FUEL COMING, HOWE HINTS—

There is nothing to indicate that Canada will have to ration gasoline this year. Rt. Hon. C. D. Howe, minister of reconstruction and supply, told the house of commons at Ottawa. "I know of no circumstance this year which makes rationing any more likely than last year or the year before," he said. "The government is taking every precaution to see that nothing interferes with the normal movement, and at the moment I do not anticipate the need for gasoline rationing next winter."

Biggest Dam Project Attempted By Canadians

By T. R. MELVILLE-NESS

SASKATOON, Sask.—Important milestone in the giant $15-million irrigation scheme, the St. Mary-Milk River development in southern Alberta, was made recently when two crews working on the diversion tunnel met in the middle and completed the 2,100-foot project.

When the last six-foot wall was blasted out, and the smoke and dust cleared away, there were several signs of relief. One emerged from Engineer Wally Foss, P.E.R.A. man in charge of the biggest dam project yet attempted by Canadians, and the other from the contractor who undertook the big job a year and a half ago. The two sections of the tunnel lined up almost perfectly, with scarcely an inch out either way.

Soon Completed

The work of lining the tunnel with concrete, started some time ago, will be completed this spring, and the river water diverted through the tunnel. Bed of the river, where the big dam is to be located will be drained, and the main part of the project carried out.

The diversion tunnel, which will be about 20 feet in finished diameter after lining, employed an average crew of 100 men since October, 1946. The irrigation tunnel, now started, will be 2,500 feet in length, with finished diameter of 17 feet. This will carry water from the reservoir to the irrigation canal.

The St. Mary-Milk River project when completed will almost double the present irrigated area in southern Alberta, and is the largest project yet undertaken by P.E.R.A.

Upper portal of the St. Mary diversion tunnel, through which water will be flowing this spring. Bed of the river will be drained along the area which the dam will occupy and work of the main structure will be rushed along this summer.
